

UNITY worksheet

Use the packet on Unity to complete the answers below.

1. What unifies an aquarium, according to the authors? _____
2. What variety might be found? _____
3. According to the authors, what is the result if “parts” don’t work together?

4. Fig. 8-6, Ellsworth Kelly’s “blue on White”, shows a large dark area on a light background. Which area is dominant? _____
5. Which area is subordinate? _____
6. Why would an artist use repetition of visual units?

7. What do they need to be careful of when using this repetition?

8. In Fig. 8-11, which visual units repeat? _____
9. How do they differ? _____
10. Which visual units repeat on our school campus to unify the architecture?

11. Why might an artist chose not to use too much of one color in a painting to create unity?

12. How might a painter change the surface quality of a painting to unify a painting?

13. In Fig. 8-19, what element of design unifies the picture? _____
14. Which elements of design can you use to unify your logo design? (list 5)

15. Which elements of design do you think will work best for your logo? (list 3)

