

Art History Review

1. The French Impressionists used _____ to divide color up and paint reflected light the way it truly is.
2. The impressionists primarily dealt with the _____ in their subject matter (what their paintings were of).
3. The impressionists got their name from an art critic that took that term from the title of _____ by Claude Monet.
4. _____ was the oldest artist in the French Impressionist group
5. Berthe Marisot painted pictures mostly of _____ and _____.
6. _____, an artist who started late in the movement, is known as “The master of Aix?”
7. Egon Schiele attended art school in _____ (city), _____ (country).
8. Egon Schiele was ___ years old when he entered his work into his first exhibition in 1908?
9. In this exhibition his work was noticed by collectors and Arthur Roessler, a _____ who wrote about Schiele’s work and helped him through tough times.
10. _____ was the year Schiele was drafted into service in WWI?
11. In 1918, Egon Schiele died from _____.
12. Schiele’s art work was like a bridge between _____ and _____, two major art movements.
13. Cubism was probably the most important and influential art movement since the _____.
14. _____ and _____ were the two artists that developed Cubism.
15. _____ used house painting techniques he learned while working as a house painter in his cubist paintings?

16. _____ studied art under his father and mastered painting by the age of 16?

17. _____ is credited with creating the technique of “collage,” which comes from the French word “colle” which means “to glue?”

18. _____ What is the title of this painting and who painted it?

_____.

19. What kind of images would we see in a surrealist painting?

20. _____ was the early psychiatrist whose proposal of the subconscious mind influenced the Surrealists?

21. Circle the artist who is NOT one of the Surrealists:
Monet - Dali - Miro - Man Ray

22. _____'s work inspired the early Surrealists in a show in Paris in 1911?

23. Where was Dali from? _____

24. _____ was the leader of the Surrealists in Paris who they called the “Pope.”